

1.

Providing for your child is like filling a jelly doughnut. Put in a small amount, and it is a delight. Force too much in, and it becomes a sticky mess.