

6.

Planning a wedding is like decorating a doughnut. Everyone wants to add as much frosting as possible without going into the hole.